A. Reorganization of domestic block

We will aim to specifically implement “further reorganization of Japanese domestic branch organizations” as proposed in the “Strategy to enhance domestic businesses in Japan,” which in turn is set out in “Nippon Express Group Business Plan 2023 -“Dynamic Growth”-”. To this end, we will consolidate small branches as shown below and expand to an appropriate scale, and thus work to strengthen sales capabilities and governance, while improving productivity

- Of the 188 domestic branches (see note), 99 branches will be consolidated, resulting in a reduction of 74 branches to 114 branches.

Note: Excluding three specified business segments (Heavy Haulage & Construction business, Security Transportation business, and Fine Art business)

- We will restructure the business support system of each branch and ensure better safety, compliance, quality and productivity of sales and business process.
- By consolidating branch offices, we will create sales personnel and further strengthen the sales system.

Accompanying this organizational change, the Domestic Air Cargo Division will be newly established in the Network Transport Business Promotion Headquarters to further strengthen the domestic air cargo network.
